

- Participating member at the Arab Universities Union
- Member of the Arab Organizations for Private Higher Education
- Sending honored students abroad for internship and to obtain master degrees
- The first Syrian university to have its programs moderated by Sunderland University
- The first Syrian private university to graduate students in the academic year (2005 - 2006)
- Distinguished university services and tuition installments program

A step into the future

