

BACB

البنك التجاري العربي البريطاني

BACB has been active in Syria since establishment in 1972, and it remains a vital market for us: our unique track record in the country embraces the provision of both trade finance via letters of credit and guarantees, and structured capital goods and project financing, for both private and public sector buyers.

BACB's experience includes the financing of

- a major hydro electric power project
- large contracts for the supply of telephone equipment
- aircraft purchases by Syrian Arab Airlines
- imports of motor vehicles and pharmaceutical equipment
- commodity imports

BACB is a leading provider of financial services for Arab markets, having established a successful track record over more than thirty years working with customers in these countries. BACB's expertise enables the bank to provide comprehensive support to clients in these markets which are of growing importance, working either with firms already active in the region or those contemplating entry into Arab markets for the first time.
