

Most cash transportation takes place between cash centres (where cash is stored and processed) and customer outlets such as bank branches and retail stores.

The Group has developed innovative information systems which allow efficient planning of routes and services to track the movement of cash and valuables throughout the network.

The Group also transports valuables (including precious metals and diamonds) internationally.

Manned Security

The Group provides uniformed, manned security teams and reception services across a wide range of sectors including:

- government
- public authorities
- financial
- commercial
- retail and industry

Our reputation for quality in the guarding sector is based both on our extensive employee screening processes and the high level of training we provide.

Aviation Security

Aviation Security services are provided by the Group to a number of the world's leading airlines and at some of the world's busiest airports. These services include:

- passenger screening
- visa and document verification
- baggage and cargo screening
- aircraft guarding and patrols

Mobile Patrols

The Group provides a mobile security service offering visits to and patrols of customer sites along with key-holding services & Rapid Response

In summary, the Security Services we provide include:

- Mobile Patrol
- Aviation Security
- VIP Guards
- Stationary Guards
- Reception Services
- Alarm Response Services
- Guard Dog Patrol Team
- Physical Protection
- Store Detective Services
- Route Vehicle Controls
- Event Security
- Nuclear Plant Security
- Maritime Security
- Power Plant Security
- Corporate Investigations
- Security Training
- Consultancy Services
- Remote Site Management
- Project Management
- Facility Management

