

bmi. Not only is the terminal quieter and more relaxed with 8 million fewer passengers since commencement of operations from Terminal 5, but the recent arrival of bmi's Star Alliance partners United and Air New Zealand, means that bmi passengers can now connect quicker and easier to flights to the United States without the need to leave the terminal and to Canada from T3 with Air Canada.

For business class passengers and Diamond Club passengers, the dedicated bmi Arrivals Lounge offers dining, newspapers and shower facilities, ensuring that travelers are ready to start their day fresh and relaxed.

- bmi acquired former BA franchise carrier BMED in February 2007, successfully integrating its network of 17 mid haul destinations in the Middle East, Central Asia and North Africa within seven months. The move marked the biggest ever expansion of bmi's route network and coincided with the launch of a new enhanced product and service on mid and long haul routes.

- In September 2007 lie-flat beds were introduced in business on long haul wide-bodied aircraft operating to Saudi Arabia. The electronically-operated beds offer 78-80 inches seat pitch and inflight entertainment through 15-inch mounted screens and noise cancelling headsets. A full and varied selection of modern international cuisine is prepared by a fully qualified onboard chef.

- bmi is the second largest airline at London Heathrow, one of the world's busiest and best connected airports. Across its full mainline and regional network, bmi operates 1,800 flights a week.

- bmi currently operates more direct services from Middle East destinations to London than any other airline, and in many cases, including Saudi Arabia, is the only British carrier to fly to these destinations.

- bmi is a member of Star Alliance, established in 1997 as the first truly global airline alliance to offer customers worldwide reach and a smooth travel experience. Star Alliance received the Air Transport World Market Leadership Award in 2008 and was voted Best Airline Alliance by Business Traveller Magazine in 2003, 2006, 2007 and 2008 and by Skytrax in 2003, 2005 and 2007. The members are Air Canada, Air China, Air New Zealand, ANA, Asiana Airlines, Austrian, bmi, Egyptair, LOT Polish Airlines, Lufthansa, Scandinavian Airlines, Shanghai Airlines, Singapore Airlines, South African Airways, Spanair, SWISS, TAP Portugal, Turkish Airlines, THAI, United and US Airways. Regional member carriers Adria Airways (Slovenia), Blue1 (Finland) and Croatia Airlines enhance the global network. Air India, Continental Airlines and TAM have been announced as future members. Overall, the Star Alliance network offers more than 18,100 daily flights to 975 destinations in 162 countries.
