

The RGBB has a new secretary

Adele's email in July to tell us she was off to join husband Sean in Dubai set the RGBB Committee the task of finding a new secretary.

After due process, Jane Brierley, pictured above was appointed in August to take over the reins. Jane has lived in Riyadh since 2002 with husband Mark, who formerly with the MODA Team has recently joined BAE Systems. She has previously worked at the British School as a Teaching Assistant and has almost completed a TEFL course. Her interests include horse-riding, reading, cookery and keeping fit by swimming and walking.

When presenting Adele with an 'Argy' at the July briefing, Owain told Adele that her hard work for the RGBB had been very much appreciated and on behalf of all the members wished her well for the future.

Just squeezing under the production deadline are a few pictures from the Wadi Club Ball.

AND FINALLY

A super evening was had by over two hundred guests who turned out in their assortment of finery to attend the Black & White Masked Ball. Mel Smart & Joanna Gibbs had had laboured hard to put on a wonderful evening which was catered by the Four Seasons Hotel.

Gary Mackender & Gary Richardson otherwise known as the Fat Boy & Slim scheduled an amazing array of music from the 60's, 70's, 80's which got even the photographer dancing!
