

Al ladd in Arabia

The Cast

The Audience

Days, nights & weeks were spent in preparation for the return of the Embassy Panto; and this one had it all. A little glitter, the obligatory cross-dressing, unspeakably bad jokes, a bit of slapstick and more than a littering of innuendo.

Brenda Forster & Joanne Gibbs

Uncle Abanaver Andrew & Widow Twankey Chris

Staff, spouses and a few friends of the Embassy pitched in to appear on stage or behind the scenes to entertain at four terrific performances in the Amenity Hall in December.

Wishy Washee Jo Fletcher & Genial Genie Greig Baillee

Marilyn Marrow (Carol) throws herself at 'The King' (Ian)

Egon Liepa and Carol Liles somehow managed to meld the assorted individual talents & abilities into an approximation of a traditional tale and with the audience participation high, there wasn't a single face without a smile on it by the end of every show.

Paul Gibbs with his Camel

Vanessa finds herself in the wrong play
