

Wadi Nights brought a taste of Jazz to the Residence gardens in November with the Sarah Kaiser Band. Born in Berlin, Sarah studied Jazz singing at the Royal Academy of Music in London and continued her studies at the Music Conservatory back in Berlin.

The Band was formed in January 2004 and Sarah was accompanied by Jonas Schoen on saxophone, Samuel Jersak on piano, Lars Binder on drums and Oliver Ramsden, on bass. Oliver, who lives in AlKhubar was standing in for the regular bass player Martin Simon who was unable to appear on the night due to ill health.

The 'foot-tapping' audience clearly enjoyed the evening, which had been made possible thanks to the generous sponsorship of Swiss International Airlines, BAE Systems and Kanoo Travel.

Sarah Kaiser Band

