

Quiz Night

???????????????? No: QN0004

THURSDAY 12 JULY VENUE ONE

More like 'Ask the Family' than Mastermind, the members quiz was once again a great hit with those who turned up to the Royal Society of St George members evening in July.

Departing RSSG stalwarts Mark Taylor and Karen Bell joined the rest of the Propeller Heads; Chris, Karen, Marcus, Ian, Christine and Padraig in a closely fought battle which pushed the 'Bop Idols' into second place. Apart from clutching the trophy for a full two minutes, their only prize was to have their photograph featured in this magazine!

Over a hundred guests crammed into the hall at venue one and attempted with varying degrees of success to answer Alison Messum's brain teasers. The team from Arabian Homes who won the previous quiz were knocked back into joint third place along with the 'Spare Parts' despite trying to beat-up one of the quiz setters. They did emerge as the only team to get all of the questions in the picture quiz correct, hardly surprising when the 'incredible green man' only recognised himself because of the shirt he was wearing.

Quiz Master Luke Bowen, caused a little hilarity at one point upon discovering that the answers to one paper were in a different order to the questions.

Unique, in my experience, was the the 'Guess the ingredients' round. With names like Cosmopolitan, Black Russian and The Riddley, I'll leave you to find out the answers for yourselves.

Shafi and his boys put on another good spread to soak up the refreshments and as usual, a good time was had by all.

Among the aims of the Royal Society of St. George are: To foster the love of England and to strengthen England and the Commonwealth by spreading the knowledge of English history, traditions and ideals. To further English interest everywhere to ensure that St. George's Day is properly celebrated and to provide focal points all the world over where English men and women may gather together.

Eight more members signed up on the night. If you'd like to join the Riyadh branch, please contact info@sgrs.org

The Riyadh RSSG Committee would like to thank all of those who had any input into creating such a fine evening for their contribution.

We look forward to seeing you at another RSSG event in the not too distant future.
