proudly declared a 2 meter effort. But none came as close as the late entrant, Doug (I'm only a 17 handicapper!) Mackie who walked off with first prize having drilled his sand wedge to 1 meter of the cup, well done Doug.

First, Team 3 with 83

Paul Brown, Andrew Wilkie, Shark Bait (Andrew Wilson)

Second, Team 8 with 83 (less birdies than Team 3)

Paul Hawkins, Steve Wagstaff, Olive Reddy

Third, Team 1 with 84

Med Rowlands, Andrew Muir, Martin Shaw

Twenty nine golfing partisans took to the field at the Reef Golf Club on Friday 27th July in a very sociable three ball format. This is the first time anything like this had been arranged at the Reef and the resident manager - now RGBB Member ( I never touched Guv, honest ) Mr Duncan Griffiths and his charming wife Janet made everyone feel welcome and very much at home. The Chicken curry provided after the golf was particularly good and can be recommended.

It was nice to see Steve Wagstaff & Olive Reddy being very colour co-ordinated with matching white polo's & navy shorts, that's nice. The longest drive prize went to Med Rowlands who had to drive all the way from Naseem, a long way that. There was no competition for the worst dressed golfer on the day, that prize easily went to Andrew Mead, pity he was taking the pictures, but maybe not, thinking about it!

After the golf we all made our way to the club house for recovery, refreshments, food and prize giving ceremony. Finally, it was a pity about the greens but Duncan has promised to get them back to order very soon.

For anyone who is not aware of the Reef or the location Duncan can be contacted on 489 0226 or 053 118 872. ....Good Golf to you all.

Aggro' nearly broke out on the tenth tee when that crafty cockney Mick Brown encouraged Terry Moorhead to drive off only to see his ball almost strike Andrew Wilkie putting out at the eleventh green. Detective Mulder is being called out to investigate UFO's.

The closest to the pin prize was a real battle. Peter Thompson started proceedings with a 9 meter entry (not sure if that was his third or fourth shot though) and then that crafty cockney Mick Brown came in with a 5 meter - with no helping leather wedge of course. Brian Suggit posted a four meter before Paul Hawkins thought he had wrapped it up when he
