

THURSDAY 21ST SEPT VENUE ONE SR120 inc buffet

A smiling Nick Oakes, supported by Roger Deeley hoists the trophy and souvenir dragon at the first ever, Royal Society of St George Quiz night in Riyadh. His team - "Shut up Roger" - slayed the opposition at a Charity Fundraiser held in September.

The inaugural event was put together by Simon Messum and a committee from the RSSG as the first of what they hope will be a number of occasions when the community can just get together to enjoy each others company.

Quiz Master for the evening, Richard McEvoy, ably assisted by his glamorous hostess Wendy, who'd flown in specially for the evening, put our little grey cells through some amazing contortions to not only entertain the assembly but also to raise a couple of quid for ICING in the process.

The RSSG team of Simon, Alison, Adam, Kelvin, Mark, Luke, & Ian had managed to rope in the usual support from the stalwarts at the Embassy and RGBB to assist in sorting food and furniture for the evening.

In short -
A great time was had by all!

Among the aims of the Royal Society of St. George are: To foster the love of England and to strengthen England and the Commonwealth by spreading the knowledge of English history, traditions and ideals. To further English interest everywhere to ensure that St. George's Day is properly celebrated and to provide focal points all the world over where English men and women may gather together.
